At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application :	Departure
Explanation on : application of the practice
Explanation for : departure	The Board currently has three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors out of seven (7) Board members, which is equivalent to 43% of the composition of the Board namely:  i. YBhg Dato' Jamelah Binti Jamaluddin; ii. Puan Yasmin Binti Rasyid; and iii. Ms Low Siew Hui.  The Board values independence greatly and recognises the important contributions that Independent Directors make to good corporate governance.  However, all Directors, regardless of their independent status, are required to act in the best interests of the Company and to exercise unfettered and independent judgment.  The Company is in compliance with the requirements of the Main Market Listing Requirements by having three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors are sufficient for the time being as the Company is not in operation and is a cash company. The Company will consider to appoint more Independent Non-Executive Directors after the completion of the regularisation plan.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.
Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	Ī	As stipulated in Clause 4 of the Company's Board Charter, the Company adopted a policy whereby the tenure of an Independent Non-Executive Director shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years.  The Board Charter is accessible to the public for reference on the Company's website at www.pebhd.com.my

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on : application of the practice	The Board acknowledges the importance of diversity in terms of skills, experience, age, gender, cultural background and ethnicity and recognizes the benefits of diversity at leadership and employee level. Having a range of diversity dimensions, it brings different perspectives to the boardroom and to various levels of Management within the Group.
	The Nominating Committee ("NC") is responsible for leading the process for the nomination of new Board appointments and making the necessary recommendations. In this respect, the role of the NC is detailed in its Terms of Reference, which is accessible for reference on the Company's website at www.pebhd.com.my.
	All appointments are based on merit, and candidates will be considered against an objective criterion. The NC and the Board do not set any target on gender, ethnicity or age diversity but endeavour to include any member who will improve the Board's overall compositional balance.
	None of the Board members are persons linked directly with the executive powers such as heads of state, heads of government and ministers and active politician.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice		When identifying potential candidates for the appointment as a Director, the Board, via the Nominating Committee ("NC"), will consider whatever sources it deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, referrals from existing Directors, recommendations from external advisor, or suggestions from shareholders.  The NC responsibilities include performing requisite evaluation and assessment on the candidates' ability to discharge their duties effectively and efficiently. The NC also ensures candidates possess the appropriate skills, core competencies, experience and integrity to discharge their roles as Director effectively.  If new appointment of Independent Non-Executive Director is necessary, the Company will use independent sources for sourcing suitably qualified candidate. The detailed roles and responsibilities of the NC is set out under its Term of Reference made available on the Company's website at www.pebhd.com.my .
